2018 Women's Weekend Wrap Up

Our retreat drew 26 women from Minneapolis, MN, Madison WI, Scottsdale AZ, Pittsburg PA and our broader Glenview community. The weekend included worship, wonderful music, meditation, prayer and discussions around the theme of "Trust, I am with you always". We enjoyed a rich, spiritual program from our featured speaker Tryn Rose Seley and Rev. Theresa Uber who led our worship and vespers. Many thanks to Ellen Pendleton, Liz Rose Zeno, Tryn Rose Seley, Barbara Palmer and Gina Shelton for their beautiful musical contributions; to Gail Cole as our hostess along with Sue Lee, Janet Riley and our entire team of helpers all of whom made the weekend such a good success! One highlight was a moving, inspirational testimonial from

Point of Faith

Salvation

Salvation is a dynamic and developing process of life change. Only the Lord can bring us into heaven, but He requires our participation. As we put our faith in Him and strive to live by His commandments, we are gradually formed for heaven. Over time we are “saved” from selfish and materialistic patterns of life, thinking, and intending, and we are raised into greater and greater experiences of heavenly happiness—both in this life and the next.

Julia Cole and her friend Laure who shared with us about their journey traveling the country in loving ministry with the Episcopalian Church, helping so many people in a variety of practical, useful ways. Such a hopeful message; they are bright lights in our world today! We laughed lots, ate great food, connected with friends old and new, breathed deeply, took in the beauty around us (in spite of the mosquitos!) and returned home more peaceful, joyful, fearless, and content. Thank you again to Gail and Ken Cole for hosting us in their home!
